

Understand Your Overall Suit Size

Suitich.com

Suit and jacket sizes take the form of a number followed by the letters S, M, L, or XL. The number refers to your chest.

It's also important to bear in mind a suit's “drop”—the difference between the chest measurement and the waist measurement, which is usually 6 inches:
- that means the pants of a 40M suit will have a 34-inch waist.

MEASURES (Inches)	S (36-38 US size)	M (38-40 US Size)	L (40-42 US size)	XL (42 -44 US Size)
Height	5.4 – 5.7	5.8 – 6.2	6.3 – 6.5	6.5 and taller
Chest	38 – 39.5	40 – 41.5	42 – 43.5	44 – 46.5
Sleeve Length	25	25.5	26	26.5
Waist	30 - 32	33 - 35	36 - 38	39 - 41
Inside leg size	32.5	33	33.5	34

Note: Listed measures are just a general guidance and apply to slim-fit.

Choosing your Suit Style

There are three main cuts available, each suited for different body types and settings. Some suits are perfect for work, but not for a hot date at the club. Others will be perfect at a wedding, but make you feel uncomfortable when meeting with your business partners.

When you are making decision on a suit style, take the following into consideration:

CUT	WHO IS IT FOR
Slim Fit	Slightly tight - this fashionable cut contours to the body and exudes style, working best for men with a slender build.
Comfort Fit	Slightly loose - boxier than slim-fit suits, this cut has a generous chest that works well for men with larger frames.
Regular Fit	Optimal fit - somewhere between the two, a modern-fit suit works for almost everyone in almost any situation.

Choosing your Suit Color

Have that perfect suit made just for you.

Although there are too many suit colors to cover, a few broad guidelines can help clarify what will work best for your situation:

SUIT COLOR HOW TO WEAR IT

SUIT COLOR HOW TO WEAR IT

Black

A black suit is very formal—worn often to fancy or somber events—and classically pairs with a white shirt and a bold tie.

Dark Grey

Dark gray is a great choice for everyday wear and is versatile enough for almost any color combination.

Light Grey

Another solid choice for an everyday suit, light-gray fabric can make the colors of your shirt and accessories pop.

Blue

Navy blue works well for the office while brighter blues are a little more playful.

Beige

Choose beige for a party, especially an outdoor party in spring or summer. Steer clear of warm-colored shirts—blue is probably best.
